REFLECT + DISCUSS:

1. Read 2 Samuel 22:1-3. King David experienced God in tangible and practical ways like when He provided caves for David to hide in. How have you tangibly experienced the presence and provision of God?
2. King David described the LORD (Yahweh) as his rock, fortress, deliverer, God, shield, salvation, stronghold, refuge, and Savior. What did these descriptions of God mean to David and how are they significant for the way you relate to God?
3. Read 2 Samuel 22:29-31. When was a time you were living in darkness and God's light came in and helped you and when was a time you experienced God helping you overcome something that felt insurmountable?
4. Read 2 Samuel 22:50. David made a commitment to publicly and privately sing praises to the Lord among the nations. Why is corporate musical worship an essential for Christians?
